it is often claimed that we live in an expert society a society where more and more individuals take expert roles in increasingly narrow fields in contrast to more traditional experts most of these new experts lack generally accepted mechanisms for the certification and legitimation of their expertise this book focuses on these new as well as established experts and the efforts undertaken to secure and legitimate their expertise we view these efforts as organizing attempts and study them on four different levels the society the market the organization and the individual based on empirical studies on these four levels of analysis the organization of the expert society makes the argument that current organizing initiatives in the expert society are based in an objectifying view of expertise that risks concealing and downplaying key aspects of expertise well intended organizing initiatives in the expert society thus run the risk of promoting ignorance rather than securing expertise focusing on a current general and global phenomenon the rise and organization of an expert society the organization of the expert society will be key reading for scholars academics and policy makers in the management fields of organizational theory management consulting organizations society critical management studies as well as the disciplines of sociology political science and social anthropology the role of the expert witness has long been important in construction litigation and arbitration and most other types of dispute resolution today there is a heavier burden on experts because of the diversity of the appropriate dispute process and the added responsibility this brings the woolf reforms and the introduction of the civil procedure rules are having a major impact on the role of the expert witnesses no longer is the expert accountable just to the client but directly owes a duty to the court in the smaller value claim a new opportunity of acting as single joint expert arises where the parties can save time and money there is greater flexibility in arbitration under the arbitration act 1996 and a need for expert evidence in the statutory process of adjudication this book takes account of all these changes taking the expert stage by stage through his or her duties from the investigation preparation and exchange of expert reports disclosure of documents the importance of different types of evidence to preparation for the hearing itself and the giving of oral evidence the appendices feature appropriate references to the civil procedure rules guidelines for experts protocols and other materials of practical interest throughout reference is made to relevant case law
